AIRPORT AUTHORITY COMMISSION ELECTS BURBANK COMMISSIONER DON BROWN AS PRESIDENT FOR THE COMING YEAR

Commissioner Chris Holden of Pasadena Chosen as Vice President; Commissioner Rafi Manoukian of Glendale Named Secretary

BURBANK, Calif., July 5, 2011 – The Burbank-Glendale-Pasadena Airport Authority, owner and operator of Bob Hope Airport, has elected new officers to head the Authority Commission for a one year term from July 2011 through June 2012. The Commission elects officers each July.

Burbank Commissioner Don Brown was elected President. Commissioner Chris Holden of Pasadena was elected Vice President, and Commissioner Rafi Manoukian of Glendale was chosen Secretary.

Brown has been an Authority commissioner since 2001 and served as Vice President in 2010-2011. Holden has served on the Authority since 1993 and was Authority Secretary last year. He has twice served as President. Manoukian has been an Authority commissioner since 2006 and served as Secretary in 2008-2009.

In related actions, the Authority renewed the appointment of Burbank Commissioner Charles Lombardo as Auditor, Commissioner Manoukian as Treasurer and Executive Director Dan Feger as Assistant Secretary, and left intact the existing assignments for the various Airport Committees.

The Burbank-Glendale-Pasadena Airport Authority is a joint powers authority formed by the three cities to own and operate Bob Hope Airport. The Authority is governed by a nine-member commission, and each of the three cities appoints three commissioners to the panel.

In addition to the officers, the other current commissioners are: Bill Wiggins of Burbank; Dave Weaver and Frank Quintero of Glendale; and Frank Logan and Steve Madison of Pasadena.
